

IRS Form 1095-B Frequently Asked Questions

The IRS Form 1095-B contains health coverage information for the covered individual and serves as proof of federally-mandated qualifying health insurance through Alaska Medical Assistance during some or all of the 2018 calendar year.

What do I need to do with the 1095-B form?

Use the information provided on the form to complete your 2018 tax return. The form is not required to be filed with your tax return. Keep the form for your records.

When will I get a 1095-B form?

Conduent will mail 1095-B forms in February 2019.

I did not receive a 1095-B form. How can I get the form?

If you did not receive a 1095-B form and feel you should have, please contact Member Services at:

- 800.770.5650 (toll-free), 2 for Member, then 1 for 1095B information or
- 907.644.6800 (local), 4 for 1095B information

How do I get another copy of my 1095-B form?

To request another copy of your 1095-B form, please contact Member Services at 800.770.5650 (toll-free), 2, 1 or 907.644.6800 (local), 4.

What happens if I do not file this form with my taxes?

The form is not required to be filed with your 2018 tax return.

Who do I contact to update or correct my mailing address?

Contact the Department of Public Assistance (DPA) office closest to where you live. For a list of DPA district offices and phone numbers, please visit <http://dhss.alaska.gov/dpa/Pages/features/org/dpado.aspx>.

What if I am not required to file a tax return?

If you are not required to complete a tax return, simply file the 1095-B form for your records.

Who do I contact if my 1095-B form information looks incorrect?

If the information on your 1095-B form is incorrect, please contact Member Services at 800.770.5650 (toll-free), 2, 1 or 907.644.6800 (local), 4.

Who do I contact if I have questions about taxes and the 1095-B form?

For tax advice and more information about the 1095-B form, please visit the IRS website at www.irs.gov/aca.