

Update: MMIS Status

March 6, 2014

Focus continues in key areas to measure the progress that is being made in support of the Alaska Medical Assistance program.

- Service Authorizations: Processing faxed service authorization requests remains within normal processing standards. As of February 28, the oldest faxed requests were 2 days. Changes implemented over the past 5 weeks have reduced the inventory of Service Authorizations by 72%, from a high of 7,606 to the current 2,136 as illustrated in the chart below.

- Claim Payments: Last week $25.2 million was paid on 84,082 claims.

- Paper Claims: Paper claim processing continues to remain current. Processing will continue to be closely monitored to insure timeliness of entering paper claims as they are received.

Service Authorization Status Inquiry: The online search capability to determine status of submitted service authorization requests does not always return complete results. Implementing a correction to this problem that will return it to 100% functionality is scheduled for the middle of March.

RBRVS Problem: A problem with the RBRVS factor has been corrected and claims are now paying correctly. Claims paid with the incorrect factor will be reprocessed. The reprocessing effort must be carefully planned and will be staggered due to the significant number of claims that are affected. Reprocessing dates have not been determined at this time.

Reformatting the Remittance Advice (RA): The design work for the new RA continues. A prototype of the institutional RA is being fine-tuned. Once the new design is finalized, it will be submitted to the technical team for development and an estimate of when it will be available. A new RA design for other claim types is also in progress.

Mass Adjustments: Mass adjustments to reprocess over 30,200 claims meeting the following conditions were completed this week:

- Inpatient claims that cut back the covered days since the submitted Service Authorization may not have been approved at the time the claim was submitted for payment
- Claims that were denied due to an inactive provider and the provider enrollment record has now been updated to active
- Travel claims that denied with exception 4462 (The Procedure Code on the claim must be billed with a Diagnosis Code)
- Outpatient claims not pricing using the Institutional Rate Record, where the rate record exists for the Date of Service (DOS) and line(s) priced at the fee schedule procedure price
- Base rate changes not calculated when TPL amounts are on the claim

Paper Claims with Exception 4826 (Submitted units exceed the maximum units allowed): A problem was identified last week with the program that reads the Units field on paper claims. If a unit is submitted with a decimal, the decimal is disregarded and any characters after the decimal become part of the whole number. For example, if 1 unit is reflected as 1.0 on the claim, the character recognition program translates it to 10 units; 20.0 units becomes 200 units. This causes the claim to reject for too many units. Units entered without a decimal process correctly. Providers should only enter whole numbers without a decimal in the units field. Analysis is in progress to determine how to fix the problem for future claims, and what needs to be done to correct the claims that were erroneously suspended.

Tribal Providers: Specific issues are affecting timely and accurate processing of claims for Tribal providers. Changes were implemented in mid-February to address the following problems:

- Copay taken on Tribal claims
- Dental encounter claims are not paying correct rate
- Encounter claim zero pricing issue on dental claims

A mass adjustment to reprocess claims where the co-pay was taken for a tribal provider and the member is a native Alaskan is currently on hold until all known problems that affect claims are corrected. This is to reduce the number of times a single claim is reprocessed.

Complex Claims: The MMIS system has difficulty processing claims with more than 100 lines. These are typically high dollar claims. There are currently 33 claims that fall into this category. Action is occurring to optimize the internal processing. The five (5) step process is 40% complete and is targeted to be finished by the end of March.

Pharmacy: Newly enrolled pharmacies are not recognized, while recently dis-enrolled pharmacies are still showing as active. New pharmacies are being added manually to the pharmacy file to enable processing of claims. Some changes have already been implemented and one final update to the automated interface is scheduled by the end of March. Provider outreach is continuing.

Call Center Support: If you need to contact Xerox, the following times are traditionally the lightest periods and you should experience a shorter call wait time than if you call at peak periods:

Department	Lighter Call Periods	Contact Information
Provider Relations Unit	From 8:00-9:30 a.m. After 2:00 p.m.	In Anchorage: 907.644.6800 (option 1) Outside Anchorage: 800.770.5650 (option 1, 1)
Service Authorization	From 8:00-9:30 a.m. After 2:00 p.m.	In Anchorage: 907.644.6800 (option 5) Outside Anchorage: 800.770.5650 (option 1, 2)

Outstanding Claim Inventory: The table on the following pages summarizes the exception codes that are receiving special monitoring. It does not provide reporting on all exception codes. The status reported is as of March 4, 2014.

The Providers Impacted column lists the provider types affected by the exception code if there are more than 50 claims associated with the provider category. The Impacted Claims column reflects the total number of claims for each exception. These numbers and the provider types change daily as additional improvements, processing and outreach occur. As issues are resolved, these suspended claims are released for processing and potential payment in the weekly cycle.

Even when a change is implemented, it can take several processing cycles to determine that it is working effectively. Changes are implemented on Saturday nights making the first time they impact a claims cycle the following Friday. That is why analysis continues even after a change has been implemented.

4826	Submitted units exceed the maximum units allowed for this procedure	DME HOSP HPRF	911	A problem has been identified that causes this exception to post in error on paper claims. The Optical Character Recognition (OCR) program that reads paper claims ignores decimal points and considers any number(s) after the decimal point as part of the whole units amount. For example, if 1 unit is submitted as 1.0, it is translated to 10 units in the OCR program; 45.0 units submitted becomes 450 units in the system. This causes the claim to reject for too many units. Claims with units without decimals are recognized correctly. Analysis is in progress to determine how to fix the problem for future claims, and also what needs to be done to correct the claims that were erroneously suspended.
