

Alaska Medicaid Policy Clarification Coagulation Factors II and V

In accordance with 7 AAC 105.100, Alaska Medicaid will pay for medically necessary coagulation factor II and V gene analysis in accordance with the following coverage criteria:

81240 F2 (Prothrombin, Coagulation Factor II) and 81241 FV (Coagulation Factor V)

- Covered only for members age birth through 20 who meet at least one of the following criteria:
 - spontaneous thrombosis
 - non-catheter related venous thrombosis or stroke
- Not covered for routine screening for pregnant women
- Not covered for adults with idiopathic venous thromboembolism (VTE)
- Not covered for adult family members of individuals with identified genetic mutations